Generic profiles in demand in the UK

We have a constant requirement for professional Engineers at all levels within the following disciplines:

Aircraft Loads & Dynamics

Encompasses adaptation/validation of mechanical and aero elastic mathematical models for subsequent overall aircraft loads calculation and analysis.

Requirements: Experience working in flight physics / knowledge of EASA Certification Specifications / awareness of relevant Airworthiness requirements and procedures / knowledge of engineering analysis tools such as MATLAB, NASTRAN and Unix is also required.

Design Structures

Responsible for designing and improving existing design principles / Support on-going continuous improvement, working in a fully 3D digital environment.

Requirements: Understanding of aircraft primary structures / Design engineering background with experience of Catia V5.

Finite Element Analysis

Developing and disseminating methods, tools and processes to support the prediction of actual structural strength by means of static non-linear finite element analysis at all structural scales.

Requirements: An excellent understanding of structural analysis and engineering mechanics principles / be able to demonstrate technical expertise in the use of non-linear analysis methods, preferably using the ABAQUS solver / excellent knowledge of non-linear finite element theory and practical experience in the use of Abaqus CAE, Hypermesh and Catia V5 / a good working knowledge of FORTRAN and/or Python programming.

Avionics Systems

Exciting positions to work across the Airbus fleet of aircraft on fuel systems. C

Requirements: Demonstrate Systems Engineering experience and ideally have a background in Aerospace.

Stress Engineering

Carrying out static stress calculations to assess design solutions for a range of tasks, ranging from modifications to manufacturing concessions against the Aircraft Design requirements.

Requirements: Experience working in stress engineering, involved in the analysis of composite and metallic structures using a broad range of standard hand and computer methods.

Materials and Processes

Standardisation of parts, materials and processes for all Airbus programmes.

Requirements: Proven experience in Mechanical / Materials Engineering / Project Management / six sigma type competences and experience in the design and manufacture of composite materials / demonstrate a basic fundamental knowledge of stress analysis.

We would invite you to visit our website: www.airbus.com/work where all our current vacancies are advertised. You can search in the recruiting tool for all positions in the UK and once you've found a job title that interests you, click on it to find out more information.

UK based Internships

We have numerous internship roles that are based at our UK sites either in Filton (Bristol) or Broughton (North Wales).

These are examples of the business areas we recruit into:

- Business
- Communications
- Engineering Architecture and Integration
- Engineering Flight Physics
- Engineering Structures
- Engineering Fuel Systems
- Engineering Landing Gear
- Engineering Product Integrity
- Finance
- Government Affairs
- Human Resources
- Information Communication Technology

The application process for these roles is open until the closing date on 31st December 2012.

For more information and to apply, please visit our website at www.airbus.com/work.

Direct Entry Graduate Programme (DEG)

The Direct Entry Graduate Programme is a two-year (or three years for Finance) programme that combines structured placements in technical or support functions with focused training.

This programme will give you the chance to enjoy a great future at Airbus. From the beginning of the programme, you will be assigned to a particular function or 'target area' and will be guided through the various placement opportunities that exist within your function, the wider business and sometimes with customers and suppliers. The programme is UK-based, but the placements you choose may give you the chance to work at other Airbus sites in Europe or with customers and suppliers globally.

This practical experience is complemented by a number of valuable training programmes covering the following topics: behavioural development and personal effectiveness, business awareness and technical understanding and cultural awareness. You will also be given a senior level career mentor who will offer guidance and support during your career progression, as well as a "buddy" DEG from the previous year's intake to provide extra support. Our graduates are encouraged and supported to achieve chartership status.

The DEG Programme provides opportunities around these key business areas:

- Engineering
 - Flight Physics
 - Fuel Systems
 - Structures
 - Landing Gear Systems
- Programme Planning
- Facilities
- Finance
- Human Resources
- Lean Operations
- Procurement
- Programme & Project Management
- Supply Chain Logistics
- Quality

Requirements:

- This Programme is open to graduate applicants from the UK and overseas, provided you meet the eligibility criteria of our programme.
- All candidates must be educated to degree standard and fluent in written and oral English.
- For engineering roles, graduates must generally hold either an accredited Masters degree or have an accredited Bachelors degree and completed a 12 month internship with Airbus.
- All candidates must be able to start work with Airbus on 23 September 2013.

We are now accepting applications for positions on our 2013 Direct Entry Graduate Programme. The closing date for applications is 31st December 2012.

CIMPA is recruiting

Established in 1995, CIMPA is a fully-owned subsidiary of Airbus with 850 employees. We deploy our PLM (Product Lifecycle Management) services in Europe and over the world in the aerospace sector as well as defence, automotive, transport and energy. Our transnational organisation responds to the needs of our internationally-acting clients and provides an integrated PLM approach.

We help large industrial groups improve operational performance and drive innovation forward by defining, implementing and supporting PLM initiatives. Our expertise spans all the different facets of PLM Services, from creating or refreshing a PLM strategy, to deploying tools, processes and methods, and educating and assisting users.

CIMPA is a fresh, dynamic and open-minded company combining the flexibility of a medium-sized enterprise and small teams, with EADS group advantages like profit sharing, incentive plan, savings schemes... High priority is given to employees' professional development, integration, training, career progression...

Due to continued growth in our activity, we are currently seeking highly motivated candidates with an engineer or university background, specialised in mechanics, information systems or aeronautics.

We offer great opportunities for learning and growth filled with rewarding experiences and look forward to receiving your application. For our job offers please visit:

Master in GLOBAL SUPPLY CHAIN AND AERONAUTICAL INDUSTRY
OPERATIONS
4th Edition. 2012-2013

The master of Engineering in “Global Supply Chain and Industry Operations”, is a degree of the Sevilla University and is sponsored by EADS Spain. It has been designed for recent graduates Engineers who want to increase their knowledge (academic and practical) on global supply chain management, engineering operations, manufacturing, assembly, quality and lean. During the master period (1 year), students will be internships in Spanish Airbus sites. Fluent English and Spanish are required (most of the courses are given in Spanish).

Who is the master for?

- Aeronautical Engineering
- Industrial Engineering
- Industrial Organization Engineering
- Telecommunications Engineering,
- Naval Engineering,
- Civil Engineering

Dates and fees

- Pre-selection process:
- June 2012 – September 2012(*)
- Launch of the course: November 2012 - October 2013 (*)
- Price: 6.100 € (inc. tax)
- Half-grants available for best students in the selection process
- (*) to be confirmed

Master in COMPOSITES

3th Edition. 2012-2013

EADS

Designed for Postgraduate to complement previous university training and to provide students with the practical aspects of design, development and industrialisation of structures in composite materials.

This Masters is mainly aligned to composite materials for the aerospace industry, although its content is equally applicable to other sectors of high technology: naval industry, wind energy and railway transport high speed.

Who is the master for?

Graduates in Aeronautical Mechanical Engineering, Design and Physics and Chemistry

Dates and fees

- Pre-selection process: June 2012 – 15th September 2012
- Launch of the course: November 2012 - October 2013
- Price: 9.90000 € (inc. tax)

Fly Your Ideas

REGISTRATION FOR AIRBUS FLY YOUR IDEAS IS NOW OPEN!

Held every two years, Airbus has recently launched Fly Your Ideas 2013 and is asking students to develop ideas for the eco-efficient aviation industry of the future, with winners sharing the top prize of €30,000 and the runners-up receiving €15,000.

As one of the world's leading aircraft manufacturers, Airbus is looking ahead to anticipate the global needs of a more connected, more sustainable world. Fly Your Ideas is part of the inspirational Future by Airbus programme – a vision of sustainable air travel in 2050.

Air travel is full of remarkable innovations, and with this third edition of Fly Your Ideas Airbus is asking students to think big too and propose an idea to address one of the following 21st century challenges for greener aviation: Energy; Energy Efficiency; Affordable Growth; Traffic Growth; Passenger Experience; Community Friendliness.

In giving students the chance to work on real issues, Airbus aims to better equip its future global talent pool. We hope university students of any nationality or discipline – from engineering to marketing; business to science; information technology to design – will be inspired to participate.

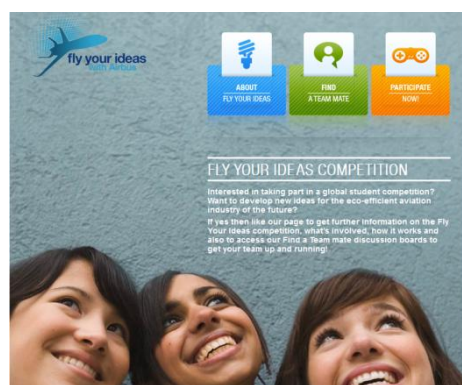

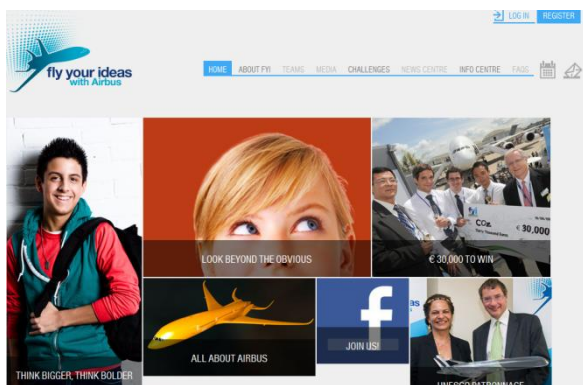

Why participate in Fly Your Ideas?

In addition to the financial prizes and the remarkable opportunity to present to a panel of industry leaders; with over 200 staff from Airbus involved during the competition this offers a unique opportunity for students to learn about the industry from within and benefit from:

- mentoring from Airbus staff and receiving feedback on their ideas from assessors;
- guidance from an expert in the field of their idea at key stages of the competition;
- the chance to develop their teamwork skills;
- the opportunity to enhance their creativity and innovation;
- the chance to improve their project development and presentation skills;
- working with other nationalities in their team, and with Airbus staff.

How to get involved

- To enter students must register as a team of three to five members at www.airbus-fyi.com
- Registration is now open until 30th of November; the competition opens on 3rd of September and ends on 7th of December
- Students can use the Fly Your Ideas Facebook application to find team mates with similar interests.
- The final takes place in June 2013 when the top selected teams will present their ideas to a panel of Airbus and industry experts.

AIRBUS PRESENTS AN ILLUMINATING VISION OF THE FUTURE OF FLIGHT

Ahead of the ILA Berlin Air Show, Airbus will transform the city's iconic Humboldt Box structure into a giant canvas with a spectacular 4D projection light show to launch The Future by Airbus, a vision of Smarter Skies in 2050 and beyond.

Join us on a journey to the future of flight!

When: Saturday 8th September 2012

Time: Every 15 minutes from 8:45pm – 10:45pm

Where: Humboldt-Box, Schlossplatz 5, 10178 Berlin

This unique light show is the first of its kind on the Humboldt Box. Dramatic graphics will envelope the building as the Airbus Concept Plane appears to take to the skies and fly in formation above Berlin, highlighting the benefits of smarter aircraft, smarter technology, and smarter skies in 2050. In stunning schematics, the Smarter Skies light show will illustrate the benefits of smarter aircraft operations that could cut travel time, reduce emissions and ease delays.

The light show will be beamed onto the Humboldt Box at 15 minute intervals from 8:45pm – 10:45pm on Saturday 8th September. The Humboldt Box is in the centre of Berlin on Museum Island.

ILA Berlin Air Show

Six exciting days lay behind the Recruitment and Employment Marketing Team which organised the HR presence at ILA in Berlin. They welcomed more than 120 participants to six Airbus workshops and organized the programme for the two student groups from Bécarios Masters and TU Delft.

The workshops included company and career presentations, interactive sessions with the participants and introductions into the fields of Composite, Supply Chain and Innovation. Furthermore, the team organised workshops for our apprenticeship and internship opportunities. Our diversity workshop “Are women the better managers?” included an interesting discussion with two female managers and Dr. Thomas Ehm, Senior Vice President Human Resources Airbus Germany. Two student groups, Bécarios Masters and TU Delft, were invited as well. They received a warm welcome by Dr. Thomas Ehm and Charles Champion, Head of Engineering, and got the unique opportunity to visit the A380 from Emirates.

But not only the workshops and student visits were interesting. Airbus’ recruiters were involved in pre-scheduled and spontaneous interviews and career discussions with the visitors.

Beside the Airbus events, several workshops from EADS and the other divisions took place. For example, the EADS university dialogue with 15 professors from 11 German key universities had been organized for the first day at the ILA. Those who were present on Friday had the opportunity to watch the WOW event organized by our EADS colleagues: Sky diving and Body-Flying. Some of the visitors even got the opportunity to do Body-Flying by themselves or to visit the A320 Flight Truck, a flight simulator organized by Airbus.

We are now looking forward to the next Airshow in Le Bourget on 17th to 23rd June 2013. We will inform you about the programme in the upcoming newsletters.
